Some Pima County Public Library branches host tax preparation assistance programs

Both the United Way Earned Income Tax Credit Task Force/VITA and AARP will provide tax preparation assistance programs geared for low and middle income individuals and families at select locations of Pima County Public Library.

Residents can check the Library's website at www.library.pima.gov for a listing of tax information and other resources to assist in tax preparation.

Tax forms also can be printed from the IRS website at libraries for a minimal fee.

The following branch library locations are hosting tax preparation assistance:
