FREECYCLE™ Back to School Swap at Pima County Public Library

Got blue jeans that are two inches too short? Three backpacks with lots of holding power, but no appeal to your now teen scholars?

Bring your items to the Back to School Swap taking place at three Pima County Public Library locations. The Library, along with FREECYCLE™ hold the events during various times of the year.

Back to School swaps will take place on Saturday, Aug. 6 from 10 a.m. to noon at the following libraries:

Joel D. Valdez Main Library
101 N. Stone Ave.,
One hour free parking in the parking garage at the Library.

Valencia Branch Library
202 W. Valencia Road

Eckstrom-Columbus Branch Library
4350 E. 22 St.

Bring in useful items in good condition and trade for items brought in by others. Clean clothes, books or household items can find a new home. Meanwhile, someone else swapping might find an item they need.

Participants are asked not to bring any large items, such as refrigerators or motorcycles. And only those who bring items can participate in the swap. Items left over will be donated to local thrift stores or organizations.

FREECYCLE™ is a nonprofit, grassroots movement of people giving and getting items for free. The swaps are an easy “green” way to recycle perfectly good items, and a great way to prevent clutter or prevent these items from needlessly ending up in landfills.

A complete listing of other Library events can be found at www.library.pima.gov.
