
Mystic River by Dennis Lehane

Andrews, Robert - A Murder of Justice

As the streets of D. C. - especially the black streets - turn into killing fields, citizen distrust of color-selective law enforcement can only spell anarchy for an already troubled town.

Bruen, Ken - The Magdalen Martyrs

When a local thug hires Jack to track down a woman, it seems like an easy way to repay an outstanding debt.

Cain, James M. - Double Indemnity

A manipulative wife involved a morally weak insurance salesman in a scheme to murder her husband and collect his insurance.

Cain, James M. - The Postman always Rings Twice

From the master of the genre, comes the story of a sultry young wife who conspires with an aimless drifter to murder her husband.

Ellroy, James - L.A. Confidential

The intertwining paths of three flawed and ambitious cops are revealed as the tightly wound plot untangles to reveal dope peddling, prostitution, and other risky business.

Ellroy, James - The Black Dahlia

In 1947, the mutilated remains of a beautiful dark-haired woman are discovered, and a massive, seemingly hopeless manhunt ensues.

Graves, Sarah - Dead Cat Bounce

When Jake discovers a dead man in her storeroom, an ice pick stuck in his head, her tranquillity comes to an end.

Harvey, John - In a True Light: A Novel of Crime

Come to care about the tragic and compelling Sloane, whose efforts to fill his unexpected father role lead him into all sorts of trouble.

Pelecanos, George - The Night Gardener: A Novel

In 1985, the body of a 14-year-old girl turns up in a Washington, D.C., park, the latest in a series of murders by a killer the media dub "The Night Gardener."

Pronzini, Bill - The Crimes of Jordan Wise : a novel

The first thirty-four years of Jordan Wise's life have been dull and empty. But that all changes when he meets and falls in love with Annalise Bonner.

Taylor, Chad - Departure Lounge

Greg searches for signs of an answer to a question that has troubled him for decades, since a local classmate disappeared.

Source

Spokane County Library District - Some Like it Noir Book List http://www.sclld.org/adult_booklist.asp?list=59