

SETTING UP EMAIL ALERTS FOR SEARCHES USING BLOGTROTTR

Do a search in the new catalog.

The screenshot shows the Pima County Public Library website's search interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the library logo, a 'Send us feedback!' button, and links for 'Help', 'Hours & Locations', and 'Log In / My Account'. Below this is a search bar with the text 'stuart woods' and a search button. The search results are displayed in a grid format, showing three books by Stuart Woods: 'Insatiable Appetites', 'Carnal Curiosity', and 'Standup Guy'. Each book entry includes a small thumbnail, the title, author, publication year, location availability, and average rating. On the left side, there are filters for 'AVAILABLE NOW...', 'FORMAT', 'NEW AT THE LIBRARY...', and various categories like 'TITLES I CAN...', 'CONTENT', 'AUDIENCE', etc. On the right side, there is an 'Explore Further' section with a 'Can't find what you're looking for?' link.

Scroll down to the bottom of the screen and click on the orange RSS icon.
